

Sunday Nite

Dear Mamma

Will write you a little note before going to bed. ? to be a long walk to-day went down by Morning side drive it was nice and sunny but a cold raw wind was blowing I walked for about 2 hrs. it sure is funny to walk that far among shops & restaurants & never even get near into the lower part of the city.
You can hardly realize what it is like until you get here. The school begins tomorrow and I'm glad.
I'm kind of expecting a letter from you tomorrow too.
I'm sure sorry about that camera if you haven't sent it already send it here to my address 516 West 142 St. I thought after wards maybe you'd want to put some of my cloths & left in it & I'd rather open it here in my room. I can rent one here until mine arrives be sure & send it collect. I haven't much news to tell as nothing has happened I will write more tomorrow nite when my first day of school is over. I told June about how we laughed at her saying you had your hands folded. I think the little snap at the pump is a little more natural. Now is everything be sure & tell me everything when you write. My room is getting cold so I must stop now. I'll try & do my roll tomorrow. Lots & Lots of Love to you & Bill

I can imagine M & Louis sitting around getting ready to go. about now
